BEACH BREEZER

A great day out for Beach lovers!

0940 Board the Beach Breezer at Poole bus station – head upstairs to get the best views and feel the wind in your hair.

1010 Hop off at Alum Chine, walk past the picturesque beach huts and start to enjoy the golden sands of Poole and Bournemouth's spectacular beaches. Take a paddle, build a sandcastle then why not grab your morning coffee at the café here?

1210 Hop back on the bus at Alum Chine to continue your journey along the coastline.

Enjoy the ride and keep those cameras handy to take some fantastic snaps of Bournemouth and the West Cliff – the eagle eyed amongst you may even spot one of the famous Bournemouth Goats helping to look after the cliffs – they've even got their own Facebook page!

1305 Arrive at Hengistbury Head and begin an afternoon exploring and relaxing. Hengistbury Head is a dramatic headland in Bournemouth situated to the south of Christchurch Harbour. It is an outstanding site for wildlife and archaeology and offers beautiful beaches and views across the New Forest, Isle of Wight and Purbecks.

Grab lunch or an ice cream in the café or enjoy your picnic at this amazing beauty spot.

You could even grab another ride on the land train.

1617 Hop back on board after a long day exploring, sit back relax, enjoy the views on your return journey to Poole.
